

MSCB Intermediate Training in Child Protection

The MSCB is pleased to announce new dates for the one day Intermediate Training Course in Child Protection. This course is available for all practitioners from all Medway agencies and organisations.

Aims

To develop participants knowledge, skills and ability to work together to safeguard children and promote their welfare

Objectives

By the end of the course participants will be able to;

- To inform participants about safeguarding legislation and policy
- To provide participants with the tools they require to respond appropriately when they are concerned about a child
- To enable participants to describe professional roles and responsibilities and how these work effectively together
- To provide opportunities for participants to consider appropriate and effective methods of interagency communication
- To develop participants understanding of the principles of assessment and of the Kent and Medway Safeguarding Children Procedures.
